The challenges will be juried at the same time as the competition quilts. The jury will select the top two challenge collections for exhibit during the show.

Please note: If you would also like one (or more) of these quilts to compete in the individual quilt competition, please have the maker submit a separate entry form following the rules and submission guidelines for individual entries. The quilt(s) must have photographs included with both the individual and group entry forms.

Acceptance of a Challenge Group is independent of individual competition entries.
